PARADOX CHURCH

COMMUNITY NEWS

DECEMBER 18, 2008

Paradox Community: This Sunday's gathering will be an AMAZING experience! This will be unlike a normal church service; we will be meeting "underground" in attempt to recreate the feel of first century Christians who had to gather secretly and illegally, getting ready for a revolution! Bring flashlights and get ready for a Christmas service unlike any you've ever experienced! Be sure to invite everyone you know, because this will be incredible!

Because this week's message will be done without regular music (or lights, for that matter), elementary students will meet in their room, NOT in the main "big" room, so please drop them with their teachers where they will get to participate in a birthday party for Jesus!

~ MEALS FOR MOMS ~

The Meals for Moms Ministry is an awesome opportunity to help others. Meals for Moms provides meals to families whose time might be consumed with other priorities due to medical or other circumstances.

Right now we are requesting a meal for Friday (tomorrow, Dec. 19) for the Williamsons and meals for Dec. 23, 29, 30, Jan. 2, and Jan. 5 for the Swaney's.

Remember that you don't necessarily have to cook a meal; you can mail gift cards for meals, have pizza delivered, etc. Also, people can split meals: someone can provide a main course while someone else provides sides/dessert, so there are lots of options for helping with this!

Please contact Sherry Arvin at sherryarvin@sbcglobal.net or (937)886-0639 if you can provide meals or other help with this wonderful ministry.

Opportunities!

The Paradox F&A (Finance and Accounting) team is currently looking for a new member. If you are interested or would like some information, contact Jeremy Fulwiler at jeremy_fulwiler@yahoo.com.

Pastor Nate would like to announce that he is putting a “Creative Team” together. He is looking for someone who is “handy” and can build “creative stuff.” If you’re interested, please email Nate at nate.helm@theparadoxchurch.org

The Children’s Ministry is in need of volunteers! Pre-school has a 4-week rotation schedule that we must fill out. The nursery needs several individuals who would be willing to fill in once in a while.

Please contact Amanda Helm (mandahelm@yahoo.com) or Carli Groven (carligroven@gmail.com) if you’re able to help.

Is something missing? If you would like an event or announcement to be included in the weekly Paradox newsletter, you are welcome to fill out a submission form from the Welcome Table or you may email Carli Groven at carligroven@gmail.com.
